PERFORMING ARTS LIMITED POLICIES AND WAIVER

GENERAL STUDIO POLICIES

(Please initial to the left of each statement as they are read)

_____ Pictures taken of students may be used in brochures and future advertising.

_____ The class length and type determine the cost of each class.

_____ A $10.00 Registration Fee per child is due at registration time. This fee defers the cost of mailings and insurance for this school year. There is no discount applied to this fee.

_____ Tuition can be paid yearly,* by semester, monthly, or by the class. Monthly payments are due on the first class of each month. No monthly statement is sent. Please inform the studio if your student is no longer able to attend classes. Failure of this notification could result in being billed for the class until the studio is notified for the class reservation.

_____ There will be a $30.00 fee charged for any checks received by Performing Arts Limited that are returned because of "Non-Sufficient Funds."

_____ If Performing Arts Limited needs to contract a third party to collect on a delinquent account, the delinquent account will be responsible for all incurred fees in addition to the unpaid balance.

_____ Please label your personal belongings. PAL is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

_____ Payments received after the 10th day of the month will be charged by the class rate rather than the monthly rate. If your account is more than two weeks past due, the student(s) will not be allowed to participate in class until the tuition is brought up-to-date, and charged a $15 service fee.*

MISSED CLASSES AND MAKE-UP LESSONS

_____ There will be no credit or refund of tuition for missed classes. All group lessons may be made up within a two-month period in the appropriate class. If a private lesson is missed without 24-hour prior notification to the instructor, no refund or make up lesson will be given, with the exception of illness, and the instructor is notified as soon as possible.

_____ It is to the students' advantage to regularly attend his or her lesson(s). If a student is unable to attend their lesson, please notify the studio of their absence prior to the start of the class. A student's attendance or absence affects everyone in the class, so please have your student attend classes regularly. In the spring semester, if a student misses three consecutive classes or six or more classes sporadically, they may not be allowed to participate in the recital.

_____ There are no credits or refunds given for missed classes with the exception of serious injury or long-term illness. All requests for tuition credit must be made in writing and be accompanied by a physician's certificate.

WINTER AND SPRING RECITALS

_____ Students perform in a December showcase held at the studio, (family week) and a stage recital in June. Performance is encouraged, but not mandatory. The December showcase is not holiday related, but rather a mid-year opportunity for family members to view the students' progress.

_____ The June recital is a formal showing of the students' work. The show is costumed and will be held at Northside College Preparatory. Costumes for each class will be determined and ordered the first week of January of 2009. The cost of the costume(s) is not included in the price of the class, and must be paid for before the costume(s) is ordered. Costume money is non-refundable. (Children's costume prices range from $45-$50 per costume dependent on size. Pre-Teen and Teen costume prices range from $50-$60 dependent on size.)

Please indicate if your student(s) will be performing in the June recital: YES _____ NO _____

Please indicate if your student(s) need to participate in a women only show: YES _____ NO _____
